

ICAR-Girnar 6

A high yielding Groundnut Variety

Salient features

- ICAR-Girnar 6 is a high yielding variety (3030 kg/ha) released in 2024.
- It contains 51% oil and 28% protein, which is ideal for high oil yield and value-added byproducts.
- It has high shelling percentage (69%) and 84% sound mature kernel (SMK). It is bold seeded type variety with 50 gm of 100-kernel wt.
- Moderately resistant to major diseases and pests.

Where and When to cultivate

- Recommended for cultivation in the states of Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Rajasthan and Punjab during Kharif season.
- Matures in 123 days after sowing.

Fig. 1: (a) Field View; (b) Single Plant; (c) Leaf; (d) Pods and kernels.

Compiled by: Sahil V. Patel, Kirankumar D. Solanki and Dr. S. K. Bera

Published by: ICAR-Indian Institute of Groundnut Research
At & Post: Ivnagar, Ivnagar Road, Junagadh, Gujarat, India
Phone: 0285-2677200; Website: <https://www.dgr.org.in>